ALUMNI OFFICERS FOR 1978-79

One of the highlights of the Alumni-Dinner Dance at the Gus Genetti Motor Inn on May 28, 1978 will be the formal installation of the alumni officers for 1978-79. Pictured above are the incoming officers: Jane Kearney Owens, Treasurer; James Murphy, President; James Casey, Vice-President; and Betty Helfrich Searfoss, Secretary.

Murphy expresses his pleasure in serving as president and pledges his every effort to continue the good work started by the outgoing officers. He encourages all who can to attend the monthly meetings and enjoy an evening of friendship.

Murphy speaks for all the officers when he reminds the alumni that it is only with their active support and suggestions that the alumni association can continue to grow and be successful.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

... and that they will provided that You are present at the alumni Dinner-Dance. May 8 is an important date to alumni and friends since it is the last day reservations will be accepted ... and just a reminder to the Sisters of the I.H.M. who staffed St. Leo's — we would love to see you; come as our guests. All you need to do is let your intentions be known.

Speaking of reservations — if you are a member of an anniversary class, please list the year of graduation on your reservation form; if you purchase several tickets, will you mention any member from an anniversary class? We have color coded the tickets of our anniversary classes so that we might "specially" honor these classes. Please send your reservations and program copy TO-DAY.

Letters, We Send Letters

Pictured are some of the alumni who help with mailings throughout the year. Going over the lists are: Betty Helfrich Searfoss, Mary Alice Sullivan Rowley, Dorothy Henahan, and Theresa Ross Radovic.

And checking them twice — are: George Radovic, Rose McFarland Gaughan, Jane Kearney Owens, Mary Gallagher McDowell, and Bob Cunningham.
